

1. Keetch had a ferretlike face which gave Char the impression of one who is constantly on watch and he stated that Miss Doyle should take another ship for passage @ A.M. for threat
2. When Charlotte left Mr. Grummage, she was never to see him again.
3. Charlotte viewed her cabin as trap coffin ugly unnatural as she stooped.
4. Charlotte felt that it was wrong of Barlow to speak to her about the trip because it was wrong for a man of his low station to presume to advise her of anything.
5. When Charlotte first met Zachariah, he was holding a lantern and looked like the very imp of death in search of souls.
6. In chapter 3 Charlotte viewed the men as recruited from the doormat of Hell
7. On the other hand, she viewed the captain as a gentleman the kind of man she was used to. a man she could trust
8. As the captain viewed the sailors who signed on, he noticed that one was missing Crannick
9. The captain stated that there would be no democracy, no parliaments and no Congressmen on his ship. There was but one master.
10. The captain stated that he and Charlotte would be friends and that no harm would come her way.